What is a Housing Co-op?

Experience Housing, Reimagined

A housing co-op isn't just a home—it's a community you own. Unlike rentals, co-op members share ownership and decision-making, creating an affordable, secure, and collaborative way of living. Here, everyone has a voice, and community thrives.

How Does It Work?

- ✓ Buy a Share – Members invest in the co-op, securing their place in the community.
- ✓ Equal Voice – Every member votes on decisions that shape the co-op.
- ✓ Shared Responsibility – Members work together to maintain and support the community.
- ✓ Affordable Living – As a non-profit, co-ops keep housing costs below market rates.

"Co-op living isn't for everyone, but it is for me. I love being part of a community where I know everyone and can count on seeing a smiling neighbor every day. I enjoy helping my neighbors carry in groceries, shovel their driveways, or play a board game, and in return, experiencing the joy of reciprocation from them or others in the community. Being part of both the small daily joys and struggles, while also engaging in self-governance with the same individuals, makes life that much more meaningful."
